"VALHALLA"

The magnificent palace of Odin, greatest of the gods in Norse Mythology.
It was here that Odin brought his most prized warriors to feast, rest and enjoy themselves for eternity. At Valhalla all their wounds healed, fatigue vanished and spirits rose. This was heaven.

We hope that, like the great Norse warriors, all of your wounds of life will heal, fatigue will vanish and your spirits will rise.

David
 Its been fun having you in Biology! Don't party to hard! Hope to have you in a couple of my classes next year!
 your friend,
 Bobbi

1982-

Class

1983

When I decided I wanted to be editor I didn't contemplate all the problems that have faced the staff and me. I thought it would be really fun to edit the yearbook and be responsible for it. Well, when you have seven section editors who come to you for help and you don't know what to do, some of that enjoyment quickly slips away. That's where Mrs. Morrow came in. Without her this yearbook probably would've never been finished. I would like to thank the staff for their dedication (we didn't even miss one deadline - that's remarkable!), and everyone else who made the 82-83 yearbook possible. Good luck I love you, class of '83!

To Mrs. Morrow for supervising and bailing us out of trouble

To Mr. Bulkeley and the photo staff for putting up us and all of our last minute photo requests
